LISA ESLINGER NAMED TO THE FIRST NATIONAL BANK BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Ames, Iowa, October 3, 2011 – An Ames community leader, Lisa Eslinger, Senior Vice President of Finance and Operations at the ISU Foundation, has been named to the First National Bank, Ames, Board of Directors. The Board of Directors, officers and staff at First National Bank would like to welcome Lisa to the Board.

Eslinger joined the Iowa State University Foundation in 1998 as controller, was named vice president for finance in 2003, vice president for finance and operations in 2008, and senior vice president of finance and operations in 2010. In this role, she is responsible for financial, investment, donor compliance, and information technology activities of the foundation. Lisa is also the public information officer for the foundation and handles all legal matters.

Prior to joining the foundation, Lisa was a senior manager with the international public accounting firm of KPMG, where she specialized in serving clients in the governmental and nonprofit sectors. She is a Cedar Falls native and a 1984 graduate of the University of Northern Iowa, with a degree in accounting.

Eslinger's current community involvement includes serving as chair of the Rotary Club of Ames Membership Committee and as a member of the Green Hills Retirement Community Investment Committee. She has also been involved with the Ames Public Library Foundation, the Lincoln Way Chapter of the Red Cross and with Good Neighbor Emergency Assistance. She most recently served as a board member for the Rotary Club of Ames.

Eslinger and her husband, Brian, reside in Ames. They have one son, Thomas, who is a sophomore at the University of Iowa.

"We are pleased that Lisa will be joining the Board. Her expertise in finance and accounting will be a valuable asset to our organization," commented Thomas Pohlman, Chairman of First National Bank. "We look forward to Lisa's guidance and input as a Board member."

Eslinger's first Bank board meeting will be on Wednesday, October 12th. Additional First National Bank Board members include: Scott Bauer, David Benson, Betty Baudler Horras, Charles Jons, James R. Larson, II, Warren Madden, Thomas Pohlman and Terrill Wycoff.

First National Bank is a local bank, serving the Ames community for over 108 years. More information about the Bank can be found at www.FNBames.com.
