

News Release

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

November 2, 2012

FOR MORE INFORMATION

Casey Rath, Marketing Director
First National Bank
515-663-3093 or Casey.Rath@FNBames.com

FIRST NATIONAL BANK IS PLEASED TO WELCOME

NEW VICE PRESIDENT & TRUST OFFICER, DON RAHN, CFP®

We are pleased to welcome Don Rahn, CFP® to our First Point Financial Management & Trust Services team. Don is a native of Cherokee, Iowa. He attended Iowa State University graduating in 1990 with a Bachelor of Science degree in Industrial Engineering. Don’s past work experience includes positions as: a financial advisor, life insurance underwriter, investment portfolio manager and trust administrator.

Don obtained his CERTIFIED FINANCIAL PLANNER™ certification in September 2010. Don’s other educational achievements include: Fellow Life Management Institute (FLMI), Iowa School of Banking, Iowa Bankers Association Leadership Institute and the Cannon Financial Trust School.

Don will be an active member of our trust team assisting clients with financial planning and trust administration. “We are excited that Don has joined First Point Wealth Management. His financial management experience and background makes him a wonderful fit for First National Bank and our Trust Service Department,” Scott Bauer, President at First National Bank.

Don and his wife, Stephanie, have two daughters, Shelby and Carly. The family recently purchased a house in Ames and is looking forward to making Ames their home.

More information about First National Bank and First Point Financial Management & Trust Services is available at www.FNBames.com.